

Celebrations and Graduations

DECEMBER 2014

The Early Literacy Programme ended 2014 with a celebratory tea for the co-ordinators of the programme. Thank you to all the volunteers who contributed positively towards the lives of children in their community this year.

Well done to 41 HSPP teacher-facilitators from 15 schools from Circuits 6 and 7 who gathered at the Aloe Road Clinic to receive their UCT and Wordworks certificates. They were acknowledged and thanked for their very hard work as agents for positive change in their school communities.

The STELLAR programme reached new heights this year as we trained our largest group of teachers. This wonderful journey culminated in three graduation ceremonies at the end of October. Superb school displays were evidence of the teachers' commitment to the programme and of the learners' experience of the eight story modules. We were delighted to showcase our outstanding Grade R teachers to Metro South District officials, school principals and management as well as our donors.

- 128 teachers received STELLAR certificates
- 3929 learners were taught by these teachers
- 52 schools from 5 circuits in Metro South participated in the programme
- 1320 learning modules were distributed

“The Stellar programme has made me fall in love with teaching again. Every time I started a story I became overjoyed because I could see the development that was taking place within my learners. They became so confident in a lesser time. Everything we did together was exciting. Thank you!!”

Every word counts

We have researched, developed and written a comprehensive trainer’s guide with resources plus six illustrated books covering the following topics:

0 to 2 years: talk, play, sing, share books;
3 to 5 years: talk, play, sing, share books, draw and write, enjoy maths every day.

As babies develop they need loving, trusting and responsive relationships to help their little brains to grow!
