

Tortoise and his shell

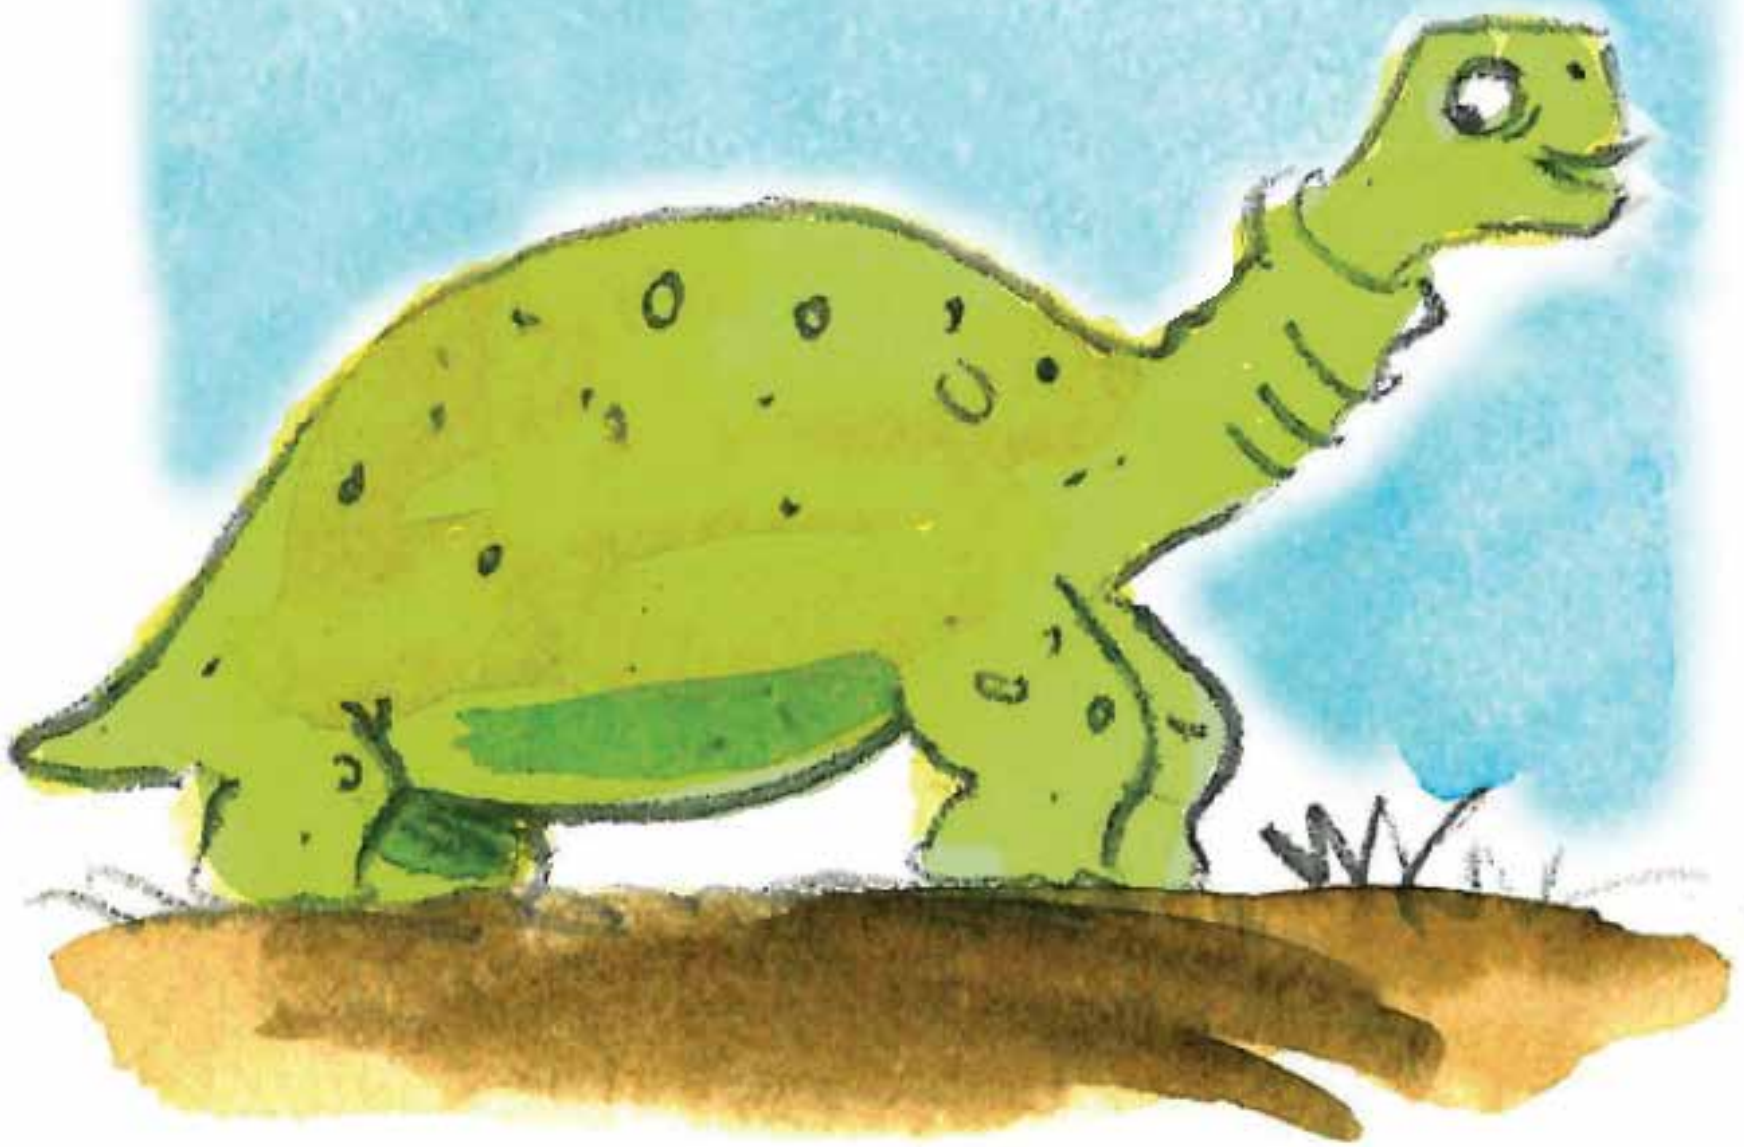

Author: Brigid Comrie

Illustrator: Helga Hoveka

Tortoise was sad.

He could not run fast.

Tortoise took off his shell.
He was happy.
Now he could run fast.

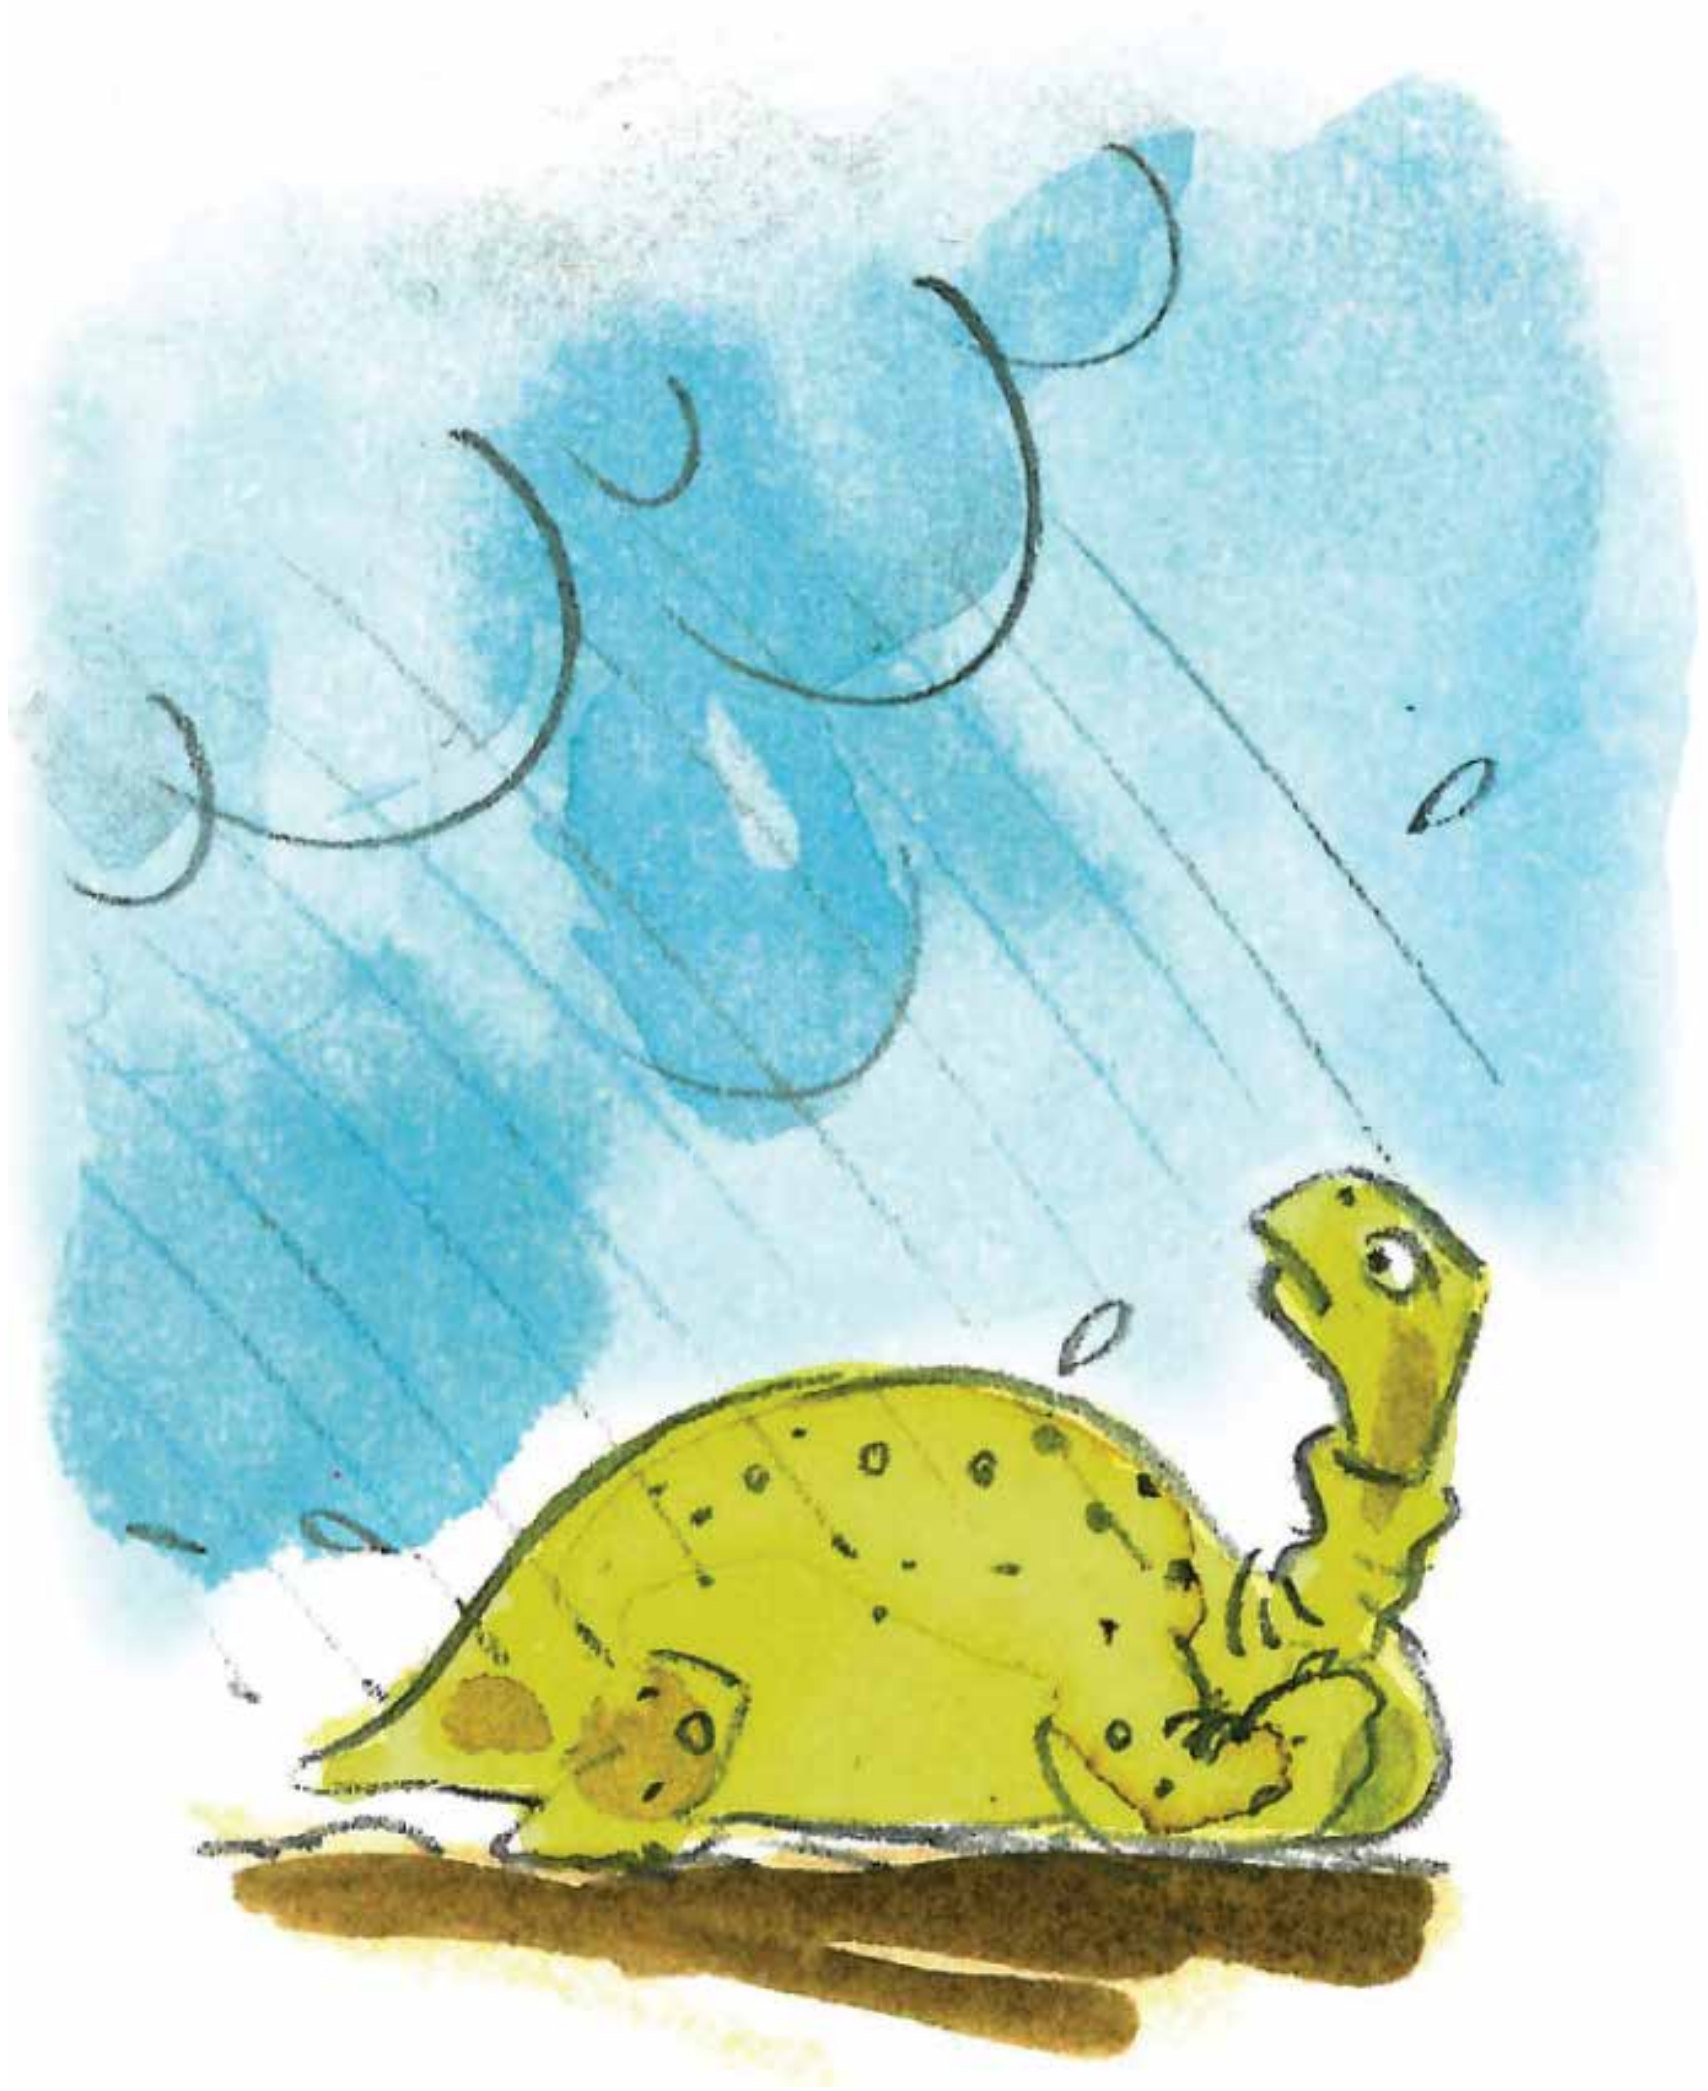

Dog wanted to catch Tortoise.
Tortoise ran away.

A big bird wanted to catch Tortoise.

Tortoise ran away.

It rained.

Tortoise got wet and cold.

He shivered.

Tortoise put his shell back on.
“I am happy to be me!”
he said.
